FAQ

Frequent questions:

- How many people can we play?

The Escape Room is available from 2 to 6 players.

- What is the recommended age?

We recommend that the participants be of legal age for the subsequent wine tasting. If the players are minors, they will be able to participate in the Escape Room but not in the wine tasting.

- What time do I have to arrive?

It is advisable to attend about 5-10 minutes prior to the activity since the instructor will give you some guidelines and recommendations before starting.

- Can I repeat the experience?

No. The Escape Room is designed to be played only once. Of course, you can encourage others to come!

- Can I cancel the reservation?

Yes. As long as the cancellation is made before 48 hours from the start of the activity. You can choose another day to carry out the activity or request a refund of the money.

- Can you take pictures and videos during the Escape Room?

Yes. You can share your experience, but we ask that answers and/or clues of the activities are not seen or intuited.

- Can we get stuck?

If you were not able to solve any enigma, the instructor would give you clues to continue.

- Can I play in a wheelchair?

Yes. There is no problem for someone to play in a wheelchair. We warn you in advance that you cannot access the service in a wheelchair.

- COVID-19 IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The current situation forces us to take a series of exceptional measures during the Escape Room. Throughout the session, players will have to wear a mask. Gloves are the choice of each player. The facilities are cleaned and disinfected at the end of each activity. Upon entering and throughout the activity we offer you hydroalcoholic gel to disinfect your hands. In the wine tasting, the safety distance established on the day of the activity will be respected in order to be able to be without a mask and enjoy the wines.

Failure to respect security measures may lead to expulsion from the group.

"100% recommendable, the combination of the Escape Room with the subsequent wine tasting is innovative."

+175 people have enjoyed the experience.

At Cellers Blanch we care from the first gram of grapes to the last drop of our wines. That is why we have created an Escape Room that will put each of your five senses to the test.

At Cellers Blanch we want to share our history with you, which is why we have prepared a tour that will show you the old winery, from the first Blanch generations, and the current one.

The first-generation Blanch winery has left over the years thousands of stories and mysteries to be solved even today. That is why we need your help and that of your group to be able to solve the enigmas that separate us from the long-awaited reward.

The final tasting is the best way to share our effort with you, each drop represents dedication, tact, the desire to want to make the wine that represents us. A local wine, authentic and honest.

Puigpelat is a municipality located to the south of the Alt Camp region. Surrounded by vineyards and small towns, under the presence of the Mediterranean climate, Puigpelat is an ideal area for growing vineyards. From Cellers Blanch we wanted to go further, and we have created an Escape Room that will put your five senses to the test.
